

Roger Williams
University

Justice System Training and Research Institute

In Partnership with the

New England Association of Chiefs of Police

Recognize

Sergeant Brandon Montplaisir

Weare, NH Police Department

For the Successful Completion of Command Training: Mid-Management Course

Monday, October 16, 2017 – Friday, October 20, 2017

Robert W. McKenna, Associate Dean & Director
Justice System Training & Research Institute

Ross Atstupenas, President
New England Association of Chiefs of Police

For Release: IMMEDIATE
Contact: Denise Owens
dowens@rwu.edu
(401) 254-3320

LOCAL POLICE OFFICER COMPLETES MID-MANAGEMENT COURSE
AT ROGER WILLIAMS UNIVERSITY

BRISTOL, R.I., October 20, 2017- The Justice System Training and Research Institute at Roger Williams University in Bristol, R.I., in partnership with the New England Association of Chiefs of Police, recently recognized Sergeant Brandon Montplaisir of the Weare, NH Police Department for the successful completion of the “Command Training Series: Mid-Management Course,” a two-week comprehensive training program for upper-level personnel.

Coursework addressed contemporary concepts of management and leadership relevant to the responsibilities of first line supervisors in a modern police agency. The program, presented by experienced academics and law enforcement practitioners between October 16 and October 20, 2017, discussed topics including operational leadership and management principles, problem-solving, organizational and interpersonal communications, labor relations, disciplinary issues, and ethical decision-making.

Graduates of the session represented police departments from throughout New England and included Sergeant Montplaisir.

Roger Williams University is a leading independent, coeducational liberal arts university at which students live and learn to be global citizens. With 41 academic programs and an array of co-curricular activities on its Bristol, R.I., campus, RWU is committed to its mantra of learning to bridge the world. In the last decade, the University has achieved unprecedented academic and financial successes and continues to be recognized by U.S. News & World Report as one of the top ten educational institutions in its class.

###