Sharing the Woods

There is not much that beats getting out and adventuring into the woods to enjoy hiking or hunting in New Hampshire. The Weare Police Department wants to ensure you're being safe and sharing the woods appropriately as you venture out and explore this fall!

Friendly reminders when venturing into the woods

- Inform a friend: Tell a person who is not hiking with you where your group is hiking!
If disaster strikes and your hiking group gets lost or an unanticipated injury occurs, someone will know the general area where you were last known to be in an instance where someone needs to be rescued!
- Pick the right trail: Stick to established hiking trails. Hunters generally like to avoid populated hiking trails because the noise may scare off game species. As a result, hunters will be situated deeper in the woods.
- Be vocal: Making Noise will often deter wildlife from interacting with the public!
- Pick the right time: Legal hunting times in New Hampshire are 30 minutes before sunrise to 30 minutes after sunset. Wildlife is most active during dawn and dusk; therefore, hunters are too! Midday hikes when light conditions are optimal are best!

Why is orange so important to wear?

The answer is simple, for your SAFETY! Did you know that deer cannot distinguish the color orange, but your fellow hunters certainly can! Blaze orange is interchangeably called “hunter orange” and “safety orange” as it is used among many fields because of its effectiveness to be seen by the human eye. Remember, you want to be seen by other people in the woods!

Tips on how to incorporate orange effectively

Wearing an orange hat, handkerchief, vest, or shirt is a must during hunting season. This will make you more visible to anyone in the woods. Avoid brown and white clothing as you could be mistaken for an animal! Don't be afraid to put an orange vest on your dog too!

REMEMBER: While enjoying the outdoors, keep in mind what season you are in, and what others may be doing in the area surrounding you! People enjoy the outdoors differently so please remember to be polite and courteous if you run into someone enjoying the outdoors in a different manner than yourself!

Please remember to pick up after yourself and leave no trace. Leave a trail, hunting location, or outdoor environment cleaner than you found it. Please do your part to keep our town clean so that people may enjoy it for generations to come, while getting outside and enjoying what nature has to offer.
